

CV Noël Spauwen

Noël Spauwen started his acrobatic career in the dutch "Como-Brother-School" and passed their exams in the early eighties. Many other teachers had their influence too.

During many years he performed with the trio "Drie Hoog Achter" in streets, festivals and theaters in western Europe. In various duo's and groups still performing and combining acrobatics now with his skills as a social-psychologist in teambuilding work and in his "acro-talk-show".

For more than twenty years he is teaching acrobatics in various settings and levels of weekly groups, festivals and special groups. Because of his varied background his concern in the lessons is not only the technique but also the way of working together and the fluent connection between tricks. In the long history of teaching and performing he developed a lot of new tricks and technical details that are more and more spread in the world of partner acrobatics.

